

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Grafton

Hanover (Dartmouth College Campus)3p
3d

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

NH, 5-HANO, 1A

Reed Hall

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

NH-67

History - Built in 1839 through a bequest of William E. Reed ofPUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHSMarblehead, Mass. Architect: Ammi B. Young.
Builder: Dyer H. Young of Boston. Construction Overseer: Prof. Ira Young of Dartmouth.
All three Youngs were brothers. The building has been altered several times, principally in 1874, 1885, 1898, 1899, 1904 and
1929. Major interior alterations have beenPUBLISHED
DRAWINGS

(over) ✓

History, continued.

made to accommodate varying usage of the building.

Description - Brick building, three story, Greek Revival, Hand made brick laid in lime mortar, walls 16 and 20 inches thick.

Reference - Roger P. Benezet, The History of Reed Hall, Dartmouth Student Thesis in Carpenter Library, Hanover, N. H., 1932.

O.R.Overby, "Ammi B. Young in the Connecticut Valley," Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians, vol. XIX, no. 3 (October, 1960), pp. 119-123.

Prepared by - Henry C. Edwards and Osmund R. Overby, Architects, National Park Service, 143 South Third St., Philadelphia 6, Pa. - September 1959.